

An Emergence of Eternal Truths

A Prophetic Word for 2008

Pastor Dawn René McCann

Emerge

1 : to become manifest : become known

2 : to rise from or as if from an enveloping fluid : come out into view

3 : to rise from an obscure or inferior position or condition

4 : to come into being through evolution

1 Corinthians 2:9-3:1 NKJV

9 But as it is written: "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, Nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him." 10 But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. 11 For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God. 13 These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 14 But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15 But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one. 16 For "who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

Prophets are entering new gates, breaking down and exposing tactics, lies and exposing not only the infiltration of satan but the infiltration of new revelation.

They will begin to speak together spontaneously through the earth saying that which has been obtained in the heavenlies. There will be a combustion brought forth and explosion that the earth has never seen. The earth will tremble at the sounds that will come forth from their mouths. They will be heralding a call. There will be a new level in the spirit that you will feel and know and be able to be a partaker of.

Those that have been called by name have seen and felt and drawn near to me have been those that have overcome in the past, but there is now a new army arising.

They will come from the places that are least expected. They will come from the prisons, they will come from the streets, they will come from the lost places, and they will come from places in the nations because the call is being sent out worldwide. There will be a coming forth as I acknowledge those who have been discarded. I have not discarded them, but instead I am locating them and placing them in prominent places. Their voice will be heard because they will be those who have a heart of compassion, of understanding, of a working knowledge of what my glory can do to change a person's life.

The glory will no longer be preached about but will be realized. My glory shall be seen and felt on the earth as my people take their positions without apology.

There will continue to be a weeding out, an exposure of that which is contaminated and that which is not pure, but there will be a resurgence of holiness. Of wanting to obey me, not running from me, but running to me for the power that is necessary not just to overcome their present situations, but running to me for the power to obey my mandates of displaying my character on the earth. Of having the wisdom to lead others into a place of humility and boldness together.

My church will grow - not only in numbers but in revelation, in spirit, in truth, in light as they rise into the life that is being released.

There will be a new level of anointing on those who are in spiritual authority, but it will not be limited to them - it will be passed to them as they impart it to the ones who are under their care.

Impartation

Etymology: Middle English, from Anglo-French & Latin; Anglo-French empartir, from Latin impartire, from in- + partire to divide, part

1 : to give, convey, or grant from or as if from a store "her experience imparted authority to her words" "the flavor imparted by herbs"

2 : to communicate the knowledge of: DISCLOSE

Because there will be more understanding, there will be choices that will have to be made. Every person will have to choose what portion they will partake of.

Those that I have my hand on, those that have surrendered all, those that have asked for my heart, not my presents, but my presence, will begin to feel the power button on full speed ahead.

There will have to be a desire to stay in the deep, a desire to go after the spiritual things that would keep them in the place of the highest revelation.

As My Church sees into the mirror of the Word, they will reflect Me and there will be a magnetic pull from inside of them to those of like spirit. They will begin to see not only how they fit, but how they must reach out to others of like purpose and passions and then join together so that they will be able to do exploits in My name.

This is the timing where the Spirit will begin to give the things out that eye hath not yet seen. This is the time the Spirit will begin to speak things that men have not yet heard. This is the time that the deep things that have been hidden from the ages before will now become common language to those who are hungry for more of Me. It is the passion for Me that will attract the revelation that is necessary to stop the devastation that the enemy has planned.

The enemy has roared. He has unleashed more to bring destruction, but out of his destruction, he has actually helped produce a stronger people who know how to stay focused. People who know how to move forward when it is seemingly impossible, who have called on My name and heard Me say, "Here am I".

Like a flood I am releasing them now. They will be in the workplaces, in the political arenas, in the schools, in the markets, in the streets, in the boardrooms, in the scientific research arenas. I will begin to flood the earth with knowledge that the world will have to acknowledge as only wisdom from above. Then the flood gates of their souls will be opened wide to hear the truth of who I am—the great I am. Not only the one that has the answers to the problems of the age, but the answers for the cry of their spirits. Then My blessing will begin to be released, and the glory, the essence of Me, the love connection from heaven to earth will be so apparent, it will be undeniable, that, of a truth, there is a God who cares for each one of His creations in a very personal, individual manner.

Out of the mire, out of the hurting, out of the abandoned places, I will secure a people. They will not stay where they are, they will not be satisfied with secondary, they will only go forward towards the primary purpose. They will be able to hear My voice and they will follow Me; they will be those that will be written about as the church of the Book of Acts continues to be portrayed in the now as it was in the past.

They will do as Jesus did, listen and do only that which they hear from the Father. I have been waiting to release these things to a people that will take them to heart and take them to the very depths of their souls and then begin to share from an inward fire.

The baptism of fire will be a release of intimacy. From the place of intimacy they will be impregnated with destiny. Then the reproduction begins. But there will be no set timeframe—only levels of determination and passion will determine how much will be released to them, and in what timeframes. I am excited. I am drawing men to Myself. I am happy for I hear more and more cries for truth. Those in the world are tired of the lies, of the lack of living that they thought would come to them through natural things. Those that have achieved what the world has had to offer will be some of the greatest evangelists of this age as they cry out for truth in the midst of the “stuff”.

The wealth of the wicked will be released. Many who have the wealth will now bow their knee and begin to release it, because they themselves have cried to Me and they will become righteous.

Others will find themselves supporting the things they used to stand against. But the release has begun.

The flood gates are open ...
