

WORD TO LIBERTY LIFE CENTER, JULY 6, 2008

"I AM"

BY PASTOR DAWN RENE McCANN

Don't you know that I've always wanted to, I've always been able to, but you see, it takes praise, it takes you knowing Me, honoring Me, wanting Me in your life, for the fullness of who I am to begin to occur for you individually, corporately, even in this city, even in this county, even in this state, even in this nation, even in the world. Until My name is of utmost importance to you, I will not be able to be the utmost High God in your arena. But when, when you understand who I am, and that I am yours, and that you are Mine, when you are truly abiding on the inside of Me, when there is no walls of separation - I broke down the partition and made it available, and yet many have not walked through. They have not come into the place of My presence, because they have held on to the past. They've held on to the things of doing it their way, of trying to understand it with their minds, when in fact you cannot understand Me with your mind.

You will understand Me by abandonment. You will understand Me by surrender. You will understand Me by seeking for Me with all of your heart, and then I will be found of you. Then you will begin to understand as I revealed Myself to Abraham, to Moses, to Noah, to John, to Peter, to those that are called by My name - revelation after revelation - authority given after authority given - because they were depending no longer on the arm of the flesh, but on their God, the God that they knew - the God that they had relationship with - the God that was no longer a God that they talked about, but a God they walked with - a God that had taken on their personalities, a God that had changed them from the inside out, a God that had defined them, refined them, and released them into who they were always meant to be.

As you come to Me, as you lay everything else down, as you cry out for all of Me, all of Me shall be found of you. Then the earth will shake again. Then the world will begin to come into the light, they will begin to see the focus that I have seen from the beginning of the ages. You will begin to see with the eyes of the spirit what I have seen all along - that there will be a day of reckoning. But for My people, there would be a day of glory and it is now. Now is the time for you to walk in the fullness of who I am and the authority that I have given you by My name and that which I have already decreed and put into place for right now, not for later, but now.

As you get a revelation of who I am to you, you will cause those things to shake - you will cause the atmosphere to change, you will cause things to come into order. For don't you see that is exactly the testimonies that were even today - as they placed Me first, as they sought Me, as they praised My name, as they allowed Me to shift things in their heart and shift things in their life and shift things in their thinking that they became a walking billboard to My glory on the earth right now.

Do you not know that this is the time, this is the season, this is the place that I have called you to be on the earth? My ambassadors, My priests, My kings, the ones who walk in authority because they understand My authority, because they've had a revelation, because they've had a revolution, because now they are one with Me. Do you understand? Can you comprehend? That becoming one with Me unleashes all that I am.

When you are one with Me, who can separate you out from My power, from My ability, from My wisdom, from My strength, from My knowledge, from My favor? For you are sons and daughters of the Most High God - the One you have praised today – the One you have declared about, the One who is now present in your midst to answer the cries of your heart, to answer your needs, to turn situations around. If you will just believe, if you will just believe in who I am, if you will just believe that I am who I said I am, if you will just declare that you are one with Me, you will begin to see and feel and know that you are more than able to take this mountain! You are more than able to take the country! You are more than able to storm the gates of hell! My church will prevail! My church will prevail! My church will prevail! The gates of hell have no power against My church when My church rises in the knowledge of Me, when My church acknowledges My name and who I am and every facet of My character, every facet, everything I have released to you.

You will come into new awareness, new understanding, new ability. You will see that the things that were hard are now easy because you're so aware of My presence with you, in you, and moving through you. Today – your God is available to you. The Most High God, the Creator of the universe is your God – is your God. Will you give Me permission to take every part of you? Will you abandon every piece to Me? Will you walk away from the things I ask you to walk away from? Will you speak those things that aren't as though they are? Will you take authority on the earth and make declarations with power and authority by My name? Will you reach out and touch those who have needs and believe that I will reach them where they are? Will you lay hands on the sick? Will you declare their recovery and believe it with your heart? Will you allow Me to be the God who is available right now? Will you give Me permission to be the utmost High God to you, and to them?

I am the God of the mountain. I stand at the top of every mountain in the world. I am higher than the hardest places. I am higher than any resistance. I am higher than any problem. I am El-Shaddai. I Am. Let go. Let go. Let go of unbelief. Let go of doubt. Let go today of fear. Let go of lack. Let go of people that hold you back. Let go of your way of thinking. Let go of your insistence. Let go of your pride. And come to Me. Become one with Me today. See if I will not prove My character, My love, My ability. There is no one like Me. There is no one like Me. I am forever. It has been forever settled. And I am forever available to those who seek Me. If you cry out to Me with a whole heart, if you come to Me, the Great I Am will be for you.

(Prayer) Lord, I thank You that this is a time of the Fatherhood of God being released on this earth. We will not know about You anymore, we will know You as our Father, our Provider in every way. I thank You that You are wrapping Your arms around every individual in this place today, You are showing them Your fatherhood, You are showing them that You care, You are loving on them and releasing them to higher places in You. Lord, we choose to abide in You. We abide in Your words, they abide in us. There is nothing that will be impossible for us. Lord, it's your Word.
