You are rising into proper position because you are seeing Me and giving Me place as King of kings and Lord of lords. For haven't I said and haven't I made My name known in this place already? And haven't I already shown Myself strong on your behalf on many occasions? For now build yourself an altar of remembrance. Now build yourself an altar and remember that which I have already done. And build yourself a remembrance today of what I am doing right here and right now, with you and through you. For I am more than enough. I am more than able and I am taking this country. I am taking back the territory with you at My side. For I have included you in the process. I have included you in My process. For I want you to know My power. I want you to know My glory. I want you to know your authority. I want you to walk in your position. I want the world to see My church the way I've always wanted My church to behave. And so the glory will be upon you and the power will be with you. And you will raise your sword of victory, and it will cause the enemy to run in defeat. And you will raise your sword, and you will strike the enemy down by your faith in Me, and by being fearless against him. For I am your God and I am working with you and I have the sword in My hand. And you are not alone and you will not see defeat. You will not see defeat. But you will see the victory that I have placed in your hands. So release the joy shout. Release the shout of the Lord! Shout with Me....

Response in Prayer:

Lord we thank You, we honor You, we praise You, Lord. We thank You that we have won a victory here today. We thank You, God that we are working along side of you, God. And that we will not forget but we will build an altar of remembrance to You. That we will remember this day. That you are our peace and that you have made us valiant warriors. You have made us victorious in this place, and in this city, and in this territory, and in this land. And we will stay in our positions. And we declare it to be so. And we declare it to be done. In the name of the Lord, Jesus Christ. And everybody said:
AMEN!
